

Bio for Marcia Aamodt
Vice President American Payroll Association

Marcia is currently serving as a Vice President for the American Payroll Association and has over 35 years of experience in leading large payroll teams and setting global strategy. Marcia served as Director of Compensation Services at Apple, Inc. and was responsible for global strategies relating to Hire to Retire as well as managing the global payroll and stock administration functions, which resided in four locations in shared service centers throughout the world.

Marcia also held the position of Senior Director of Payroll & HRIS at Abercrombie & Fitch for 5 years and Northwest Airlines, Inc. since 1981 as Director of Payroll and Accounts Payable. She is an active member of the APA; on the national level she has served in various capacities such as, Vice President; the Chair of the Retail Sub-Committee; she has also served as Chair of the Large Employer Task Force, as a member of the Government Affairs Task Force, and as a volunteer with the Hotline Referral Service. She has also served as Chair of the Health Care Reform Committee and represented the APA on the IRS Information Reporting Program Advisory Committee (IRPAC). On a local level she has served in various positions with the Northstar Chapter, including Chair of the Education and Conference Committee, Vice President and President. She also held the position of Vice President with the Columbus, Ohio chapter. She is also very active on payroll vendor boards, she has served as a member of ADP's Client Advisory Board for both US and Global products, on ETrade Client Advisory Board and the Chair of the FLS User Committee for three terms. In addition, Marcia worked closely with the Airline Industry Group, which she chaired for a 5-year term. Marcia is also a contributing writer for PayTech magazine, published by the APA.

In 1995, Marcia was honored with American Payroll Association's Meritorious Service Award; in 1998, the APA honored her with a "Special Recognition" Award for her services to the payroll profession. In 2001, Marcia was named APA's Payroll Women of the Year.